

December 2014

Dear Tamara, Sophie and kinders,

Thank you for sending me such a lovely letters! I do love reading children's letters, and seeing a group of friends doing something special together.

I am very sorry to miss your concert this week but I'm sure you and your families will have a lot of fun with Wombat Divine! But I did enjoy visiting your picnic last week and getting a gift from Jacinta!

I love giving surprises so I can't tell if any of you will get some frozen toys and clothes, a Lego fire station, logging truck or other sets, a star, a puppy, Skylander things, a two-headed dragon, some runners, a toy boat, a talking bird, a beautiful picture or a bike — or any of the other things you asked for (and I did love that Emma asked for a gift for her sister!) But I'm sure you will enjoy whatever you find on Christmas morning anyway!

Christmas is almost here now — I can hardly wait! But if we all keep busy it will come soon enough.

Good luck with prep next year, and have a very Merry Christmas!
